

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The University of California San Francisco (UCSF), Center of Excellence for Transgender Health (CoE) has taken the lead on coordinating the efforts for the inaugural National Transgender HIV Testing Day (NTHTD) on April 18, 2016. This toolkit was developed as part of the UCSF Capacity Building Assistance (CBA) program, a CBA partnership team. The UCSF CBA Partnership includes the Center for AIDS Prevention Studies (CAPS), the Alliance Health Project (AHP), and the CoE.

This toolkit is dedicated to vibrant transgender communities and the providers who selflessly advocate and serve transgender individuals affected by HIV/AIDS.

The CoE would like to acknowledge the following individuals and groups for contributing to the development of this Transgender HIV Testing Toolkit:
